

PBS BEAD RETREAT
Tolovana Inn, Cannon Beach, Oregon
March 4, 5, & 6, 2011

(A registrant must be a member in good standing as of Sept. 4, 2010 to participate*)

Tuition: $75/applicant. Tuition includes daily breakfast items, buffet lunches, snacks and beverages. Tuition checks will be cashed soon after they are received. If an attendee withdraws before the deadline (see below) a PBS refund check will be issued in the attendee's name.

Accommodations: Applicants make their own room reservations with Tolovana Inn which offers reduced room rates based on the number of room occupants. Please support PBS by staying at the Inn!

Activities: Free Beading Classes, Photo ID Contest, Bead Bingo, Wine & Cheese Social, Swap & Sell, Bead Gambling, Bead Challenge and other activities. A detailed email about activities will follow registration.

The 2011 Margaret Scovil Bead Challenge is "Make a Doll". The doll must be made of at least 50% beads and/or covered with at least 50% beads (as in hair, clothes etc) and must be between 6" - 9" in height (crown-heel length). More than one doll may be submitted if sewn together in a common theme (e.g. mother and child). Four categories will be accepted for the doll: 1) look-a-like (like yourself or someone else); 2) ethnic; 3) fantasy; 4) whimsical. There will be a winner for each category and a best-in-show award.

Exception: After 02/01/11, any unfilled registrations will be offered to new members so please apply even if you joined PBS after the September 5, 2010, deadline.

NOTE: Bead Retreat activities, catered meals, food and water are for Retreat attendees only. On Friday evening, there will be a Wine and Cheese Social; attendees may bring a guest to this event.
